COUNCIL IN MORE SUBDIVISION MUDDLE

NEWS' POLITICAL PAGES SYNDICATED THROUGH SAN GABRIEL VALLEY

Yup, along with most of the San Gabriel Valley we are going to Tuesday's polls wrapped up in Art Hewitt's analysis of candidates and propositions that have appeared in last week's and the current NEWS. As soon as the phones started ringing and editors of Valley papers began asking for a chance to run the political pages in their journals, we reached around and patted ourselves on Hewitt's back.

The recognition only befits an excellent job of reporting. Go to it, Hewitt.

And incidentally, the NEWS office is smothered under an endless blizzard of publicity hand-outs urging yeas or nays on the November 2 propositions.

We like the simplicity of one group which calls itself "The California Committee Against Featherbedding"—sounds like blue-nosed opposition to bundling.

And there's the "committee for intelligent management of ocean fisheries."

A tax bulletin arrived with a big story headlined: CORRUPTION OF THE SENATE KILLED THE ROMAN REPUBLIC. But we figured the news was a little cold.

Last week there was a front page story on Planning Commission concern about population increase.

This week two intelligent and irritated young mothers-to-be decided to appear before the Commission to ask if it was all right to go ahead.

Next week we want to find out who thinks he can stop 'em!

We have naught but sympathy for the man we watched Saturday over on Kersting Court. He spied several parking spaces at Robert's, hastily started up his motor, whipped out and around and over. And when he got there—there wasn't room for an undernourished Fiat.

It's a conspiracy.

Stormed in to ask Bob Green why the light bill was so high. He told us.

As long as we have bats in the City Hall belfry we think that Officers Chunn and Mackie should be provided, at no expense to themselves, with matching hair nets.

When one of the winged monsters swooped down on the Police Dept. last week the two officers, plus "Tiny" Scalzo, made a great hullabaloo about trying to catch it.

Actually we happen to know they were all trying to get into the broom closet and shut the door after.

The Mayor himself divulged that those Monday night briefings of the Council for Tuesday night action have been dubbed "Iron Curtain Sessions."

Well, they've been called a lot of things, but in all our years of covering various governing bodies we never found one that didn't schedule prior meetings for discussion of agenda.

With space at a premium at "Peg's," we suggest that a coffee-drinker's bench be built along the front. Then the business population of the south side of the east end of West Sierra Madre Blvd. could daily in its cups and the rest of us get in for a square meal.

All in favor vote YES! It is the solemn duty of each and every one of us to—uh—where are we?

City Will Pay Homage
To Artists

Art Week in Sierra Madre again will drop its remote national aspect as participating resident artists, city and civic officials join in a colorful local celebration, November 3, 4 and 5.

Oils and water colors will be on exhibit in the Council Chambers of City Hall and an outdoor exhibit of paintings will be hung in the patio of Hotel Sierra Madre.

Outstanding paintings will be highlighted in store windows all through the business section and everybody in town is urged to come, look and indulge in comment on Sierra Madre's art contributions.

Ceramics designed and manufactured locally also enter the parade this year and will be appropriately exhibited.

The annual affair, which is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, will finish with a flourish Friday evening when the Mayor and City Council members and wives are hosts at a public reception honoring the artists.

Working Committee on the program includes Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger, Mrs. Noren Eaton, Dr. Daniel D'Arcy, Elmer Weese and Alfred James Dewey.

Tortoise Treks
Tenth of a Mile
In Ten Days Flat

Through nice co-ordination of the Sierra Madre NEWS and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schweppe of North Lima, Sandy, the sight-seeing tortoise was rudely interrupted last week on his journey to Somewhere and returned home to the Community Nursery School.

First the School missed the hard-shelled playmate and called the NEWS—a heart-rending story was written—and promptly read by Mr. and Mrs. Schweppe. When Sandy hove into their yard at a fast clip, Mrs. Schweppe phoned the NEWS and then handed Sandy over to David Tiller, Nursery scholar, who bore him happily home.

Full Decade
Marked By Arts Guild

The Sierra Madre Arts Guild begins its second decade with the opening meeting of this season, 8:30 p. m., October 29 at the Brick Oven, on Windsor Lane.

During the evening, color slides of Arizona, New Mexico and Utah will be shown by Aldus D. Waltz, member of the Los Angeles Club and the Kodachromers.

Alfred J. Dewey has been Guild president since May 2, 1938, when a group of artists decided to "further all the arts and their representations in Sierra Madre."

Of the 30 original members, founders included the Leslie Wynne family, Marvin and Myrtle Weese, R. C. Lewis and Alfred and Sally Dewey. Membership is now 250.

For the first four and a half years, Guild meetings were held in the Old Adobe on East Montecito. When the Adobe was sold, they met at the Wistaria Vine, until three years ago when they settled in the Old Brick Oven on Windsor Lane.

SWIM POOL
DIPS IN RED

The City's attempt to operate the Canyon Plunge resulted in a net loss for the past summer of $785.50.

A report submitted to the City Council by the auditor revealed that for the period July 1 to September 30, the swimming pool expenditures were $2,653.80. Receipts during that period were $1868.30.

Previously the Council had allowed the Plunge to be operated under a concession.

This was the first attempt at city management in recent years. But even with it privately operated, the City was forced to expend money for maintenance, capital outlay and water.

cine, conveniently held at Palm Springs last week.

Dr. Miller, long in practice here, served on a special panel to evaluate the latest reports on fluorine and its influence on tooth decay.

The Seminar was organized on the West Coast so that clinicians and investigators of many branches of the health professions could meet for open discussion and exchange of information. The plan of study has proven so successful that it is now being imitated in other parts of the country. Dr. Miller was among the original group which inaugurated the first Seminar at Del Monte five years ago.

TRUE CIVIC CO-OPERATION has resulted in Sierra Madre Public School's acquisition of an audiometer, approved device for testing children's hearing ability. Purchase of the valuable equipment was made possible by the Civic Club, Lions, Kiwanis and P.T.A. Presentation was made Friday by club representatives shown above. Sitting: Mrs. Nathan Jacobs, P.T.A. president; Mrs. Clyde Hoover, Civic Club president and Mrs. Don Wells, Public School nurse. Standing: Howell White, School Board member; Arthur Morse, Kiwanis president; Lloyd Welch, Lions president; Father Harley G. Smith, Jr., E. Waldo Ward, School Board president and Charles A. Skutt, School Superintendent.

Full House
Certain For
S.M. Concerts

Music is in the air for Sierra Madre—memberships for the winter series of Community Concerts are selling fast and it is expected that all 600 will be subscribed to before the week is out.

Under the Concert plan, three concerts will be given in the public school auditorium, cost of the series is $6 for adults, $3 for students. No single admissions can be purchased at the time of the concerts.

Headquarters for the drive are at Howard's Furniture Store and Francis Eakman heads the membership committee directing efforts of 63 enthusiastic volunteers.

A banquet Monday evening started the drive as almost 70 persons responded to the city's need for community music.

Most recent listings of artists available for the season include Rose Bampton, Mona Paulie, Dorothy Maynor, John Carter, Nino Martini, pianist Rudolph Firkusny, the St. Louis Sinfonietta, dancer Paul Draper and Larry Adler.

Don Jackson, president of the organization reminded prospective members that their subscriptions allow attendance at other Community Concert series which are being scheduled for Arcadia, Monrovia, Azusa and Hollywood.

MOTHERS, UNITE!

A late bulletin from P.T.A. headquarters shows that from the total of 514 subscriptions received thus far, 35 per cent are from fathers. Three room prizes will be awarded; two for the highest quota and one for the most fathers.

BISHOP BLOY TO VISIT

Bishop Eric P. Bloy of the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles will say nine o'clock mass at Ascension Church, Friday morning before pupils of the Parochial School. This is Bishop Bloy's first visit to any of the parochial schools and is an exceptional honor for the local academy.

Drive Failure
Threatens
Youth Groups

The disappointing revelation that only $700 of the urgently needed $3000 Community Fund goal had been reached yesterday by drive chairman Dr. Milton Valois.

After almost two weeks' hard work by 200 volunteer workers, the results are so small that the 1948-49 programs of all Sierra Madre youth groups are in danger of being slashed to the bone.

Dr. Valois said yesterday, "Because our goal seemed so modest to them we are receiving only half to a third of the usual contributions."

"We are very disappointed in residents who always before have helped generously in our drive for the youth groups."

"There is no other drive for youth group funds in Sierra Madre," he pointed out. "If we don't make the goal there is no other means of support for Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls or Toy Loan. Regardless of whether we have made the goal or not the drive is to end October 31."

The annual drive, sponsored by Kiwanis, never has failed before in Sierra Madre and workers from all groups will put in extra effort during the last days to make a better showing, he said.

Jumping with both feet into the pitched and prolonged battle of the Subdivision Ordinance, the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, Monday night, went on record as being "in favor of the amendment of the ordinance in order that the definition of 'Subdivision' in the city ordinance shall conform to that in State law." The motion was made by Noren Eaton and seconded by John Osgood.

A second and strongly worded resolution was made by Dr. Daniel D'Arcy and seconded by Tom Schwartz, that the board of directors "go on record as suggesting the amendment of the Sierra Madre Zoning Ordinance to provide that any division of an existing lot or lots which would result in a parcel having on frontage or less than 50 feet of frontage on a dedicated public street shall be subject to the approval of the Planning Commission."

With the apparent intent of passing the resolutions for Tuesday's Council consumption, every Chamber director was present for the important step. A full house attended, generously sprinkled with real estate agents and attorneys.

BACKYARD BEES-NESS

Bees are in William V. Mendall's — not bonnet — but back yard according to police record which shows a complaint that a considerable number of honey-laden harrassers have buzzed the complainant at his 2225 N. Santa Anita address.

Police note that there is possible violation of an ordinance by the bees—but who's to tell them?

Passes Buck To Plan Commission

BY ARTHUR HEWITT

Demands for immediate changes in Sierra Madre's much abused subdivision ordinance this week proved to be the cue for the start of a new but popular game of "muddle, muddle, who's got the muddle?"

The City Council had the muddle on its hands at its meeting last Tuesday, but it got rid of it in a hurry and passed it back to the Planning Commission which will have to consider it tonight (Thursday).

The attack on the Council came from three quarters:

1. Contractor Harold Spears, who has been shunted back and forth for several months in his attempt to subdivide his Grandview Avenue property and build homes.
2. Harold G. Petz of Monrovia who bought property on Ramona Avenue and "just wants to build a home."
3. The Chamber of Commerce, real estate operators and the Bank of Sierra Madre who declared that the subdivision ordinance, passed last January, by the Council, is "not in the best interests of the city's development."

Spears came up first. He was appealing an order of the Planning Commission which he said did not allow him to subdivide. "Further delay is further expense to me," he said.

Councilman Herman Barter suggested that his appeal be sent back to the Planning Commission (which has had it in its lap for three meetings) for a "reply to the Council in writing."

Mrs. May de Wright, president of the Planning Commission, stood up to declare: "No sir! It hasn't been turned down. It was referred for Mr. Spears to meet with the city attorney. The delay was not our fault."

At the last meeting we did not have an engineer, we had an assistant engineer. Sidewalks (to be put in by Spears in his subdivision were recommended. The ordinance says sidewalks—period."

City Attorney Thomas A. Reynolds said he had not received a copy of the Planning Commission's order. And Attorney Noren Eaton, who has been at odds with the city

INJURED IN FALL

Knee injuries were sustained last week by Mrs. May Yaeger, 63, of 273 West Laurel, when she caught her heel and fell to the sidewalk. A crack in the walk, forced open by roots of a parkway tree, was blamed for the fall according to police.

PROPOSED COUNTY COURTHOUSE. On next Tuesday's ballot voters will find a county bond issue for $5,000,000 to complete the proposed Superior Court Building which will be constructed at Hill and Temple Streets in the Los Angeles Civic Center. the site and have set aside $6,000,000 for the $11,000,000 building fund. If the bond issue fails, the necessary $5,000,000 will be raised next year via property taxes. The bond issue, if it gains a two-thirds majority, will spread the cost over 20 years, the Supervisors pointed out. Above is the

Girl Scouts Observe Anniversary

A week commemorating the 36th year of National Girl Scouting will be inaugurated Sunday, October 31, when uniformed local Scouts make a point to attend services at either the Congregational Church or St. Rita's. This date also marks the birthday of the Girl Scout founder, Juliette Lowe.

Each day will constitute a different Scout activity:

Co. Bonds On Ballot For Bldgs.

The county has no courthouse and its Juvenile Hall has been repeatedly denounced as inadequate by successive grand juries.

With this in mind, the Board of Supervisors placed on the ballot two bond issues: one for $5,000,000 to provide a Superior court house and another for $3,500,000 for a Juvenile Hall.

Cost of the courthouse will be $11,000,000. The Board already has earmarked out of tax money $6,000,000 for its construction. If the bond fails, the balance will come out of next year's tax levy, the Board has said.

The $3,500,000 needed to construct a Juvenile Hall was stricken from the county budget this year to keep the tax rate down. If the bond issue does not pass, the necessary amount will have to be paid by taxpayers next year through the general levy instead of being spread over a 20 year period by bonds, according to the supervisors.

Troop Three had a new experience last week at the home of Scoutmaster Vurg Smith as they witnessed the slaughtering of a pig. Last Thursday the troop toured Griffith Park Planatorium, taking in the lecture and going through the exhibition rooms.

You Name Electors; They Cast the Final Votes

BY ARTHUR HEWITT

The ballot you pick up at the polling place next Tuesday will bear the names of the Presidential and Vice-Presidential nominees of four parties and 25 blank spaces.

These 25 blank spaces are what you should use if you wish to vote for a candidate other than those put up by the Republican, Democratic, Prohibition or Independent Progressive parties.

To closely follow technical election procedure, you should list in those blank spaces the names of 25 electors—persons you know will cast electoral votes for your "write-in" candidate FOR you.

Such procedure, however, isn't practical. You can write-in the name of a single candidate (for example, Norman Thomas of the Socialist party who is not qualified for the California ballot this year). Your vote for a write-in candidate is a vote for him as an elector.

If the write-in candidate, such as Norman Thomas (to carry on the example), gets one per cent or more of the total votes cast in California, his total will be listed with those of the other candidates by the Secretary of State. If not, the votes will be relegated to the category of "Scatter Votes."

When you vote for Governor Dewey or President Truman as your Presidential choice, you are actually voting for 25 persons who have been pre-selected to do your voting for you after election day is past.

That is the electoral system. In California these 25 electors for each qualified party are selected by the State convention of each party. The manner of selection is established by the State Legislature.

There is one elector for every representative in Congress. California has 23 Congressmen and two Senators, so each party here is entitled to 25 electors. And each elector of the party getting the most votes has one vote for President.

Under present law these electors need not vote for a specific candidate. But in recent years they always have, and under the present unit-vote system all the electoral votes of the State go to the candidate receiving a plurality of popular votes.

These electoral votes determine who shall be President and Vice-President. And, in a very close election, a candidate having the greatest popular vote is not assured of election. Three times in this country's history men have been elected although they had fewer popular votes than an opponent.

And if a candidate, even though he has the greatest popular vote, does not get a majority of electoral votes, it's no contest. Under a constitutional provision the House of Representatives then elects a President from among the three having the most votes. For election, a candidate must have 266 electoral votes out of the total electoral votes of 531.

At one time the state electors appeared on the ballot, but the lists of unfamiliar names only added to the confusion. Now you just have to stamp your "X" after the name of your candidate for President and Vice-President.

The average voter never sees the list of electors. But here they are on this page—all 10 of them for the four parties on the ballot.

They do the final voting. But when you check your ballot, you are telling them how to vote on your behalf.

CITY TO BENEFIT UNDER PROP. 18

Passage of State Proposition No. 18 on next Tuesday's ballot will net the City of Sierra Madre almost $6500 and the Sierra Madre Elementary School District a like amount, according to estimates released this week. The money would be returned to the City and the School District here by the State controller. Its effect would be to reduce the property tax levy of all cities, the school districts and counties.

In a resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors, passage of State Proposition No. 18 was strongly urged. Under this amendment the county government alone would be entitled to an annual reimbursement of $3,500,000 from the state for tax exemptions now allowed veterans and welfare agencies. It would particularly benefit small school districts which have a heavy veteran population.

The amendment was placed on the ballot by the state legislature, and it would be used to "reduce the ad valorem tax on property" within the county. The money would come out of state surplus funds.

Ballot Is Your Voice Tuesday

The key to democracy is the ballot. The right to vote is an American treasure.

You would fight with guns an outsider who attempted to disfranchise you. Yet at every election many persons disfranchise themselves by failing to appear at the poll to mark the printed ballots that await them.

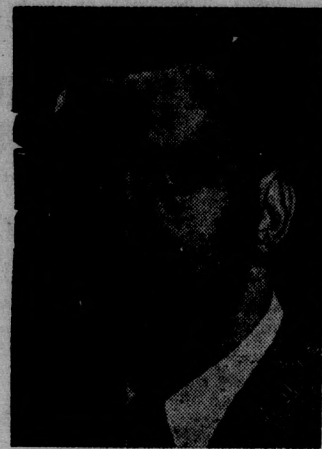

Next Tuesday the nation will go to the polls to elect a President and Vice-President of the United States. Representatives in Congress and state legislators will also be elected. Here in California the people will vote on 19 important State propositions, and in Los Angeles county ten local propositions, two of them bond issues, will be on the ballot. They are important.

In Los Angeles County there are 2,122,858 persons registered to vote, a record high. In Sierra Madre, there are 4172 persons eligible, also a record. The goal sought is a 90 per cent turnout for next Tuesday's election. It should be 100 per cent.

Don't throw your heritage out the window. Evaluate the records of the candidates. Study every proposition. Then get out and vote!

Council In More

over the ordinance, said that the Council would have to set an appeal hearing for Spears. "You can't have an assistant engineer unless you have an engineer for him to assist," he said in making a point of the fact that the Commission has long decried the fact that it can accomplish nothing without engineering and legal aid. Reynolds said that it was perfectly legal for the assistant city engineer, H. W. Brod, to act as engineer until he is certificated by the State, but he admitted that the process of planning would be handicapped by threat of final disapproval of a subdivision map by an as-yet-unnamed city engineer "pro tem."

Councilman Henry Korsmeier pointed out that the ordinance is not very clear in the matter of whether or not sidewalks should be required for dedicated streets, and he wanted to know why sidewalks on Grandview Avenue should be required of Spears when there are no others in the neighborhood. It was then pointed out that if Spears was forced to install sidewalks, many trees along the street would have to go. "I'd hate to see the oak trees go," Korsmeier said. "So would all of us. That's the question," Barter added. But the ordinance, Reynolds pointed out, calls for sidewalks and allows no exceptions. "Trees or no trees. The Council then referred it back to the Planning Commission from whence it had come. Then came Petz. His letter pointed out that he bought property on the northwest corner of Ramona and Park Avenues from Elizabeth Steinberger (via Harvey) but that the building department refused to issue a building permit and gave no specific reason other than the city "legal department said it should not do so." Petz pointed out that he bought the property in good faith and that the proposed improvements violated no ordinance. Reynolds then said that he would write a full letter of explanation to the petitioner. Councilman Korsmeier, however, wanted to know why the city attorney had advised against the permit.

Reynolds then said that the property had been subdivided without obtaining permission from the Planning Commission under the subdivision ordinance. The property had been cut into three lots.

"I have violated no ordinance in buying the land," Petz said. "Where is there something in the law that would prevent me from building? Anything that went on before me is not my responsibility."

Mayor Milton Steinberger said that solution to the problem was up to the Planning Commission, but Korsmeier pointed out that violations of ordinances were the responsibility of the building department and the police department—not the Commission.

Confusion then took over. Petz asked if he should file a map under the subdivision ordinance. Reynolds said that the seller should file the map. Eaton jumped to his feet and said that the seller could not file because she was not the owner—and the ordinance says the owner must file.

Eaton then took the stand that violators should be haled before the municipal judge. "Why shouldn't it be enforced," he said. "If a law has been violated, why shouldn't a complaint be filed by the police department to see how effective it (the ordinance) is?" "The matter is now before the Superior Court," Reynolds said.

(Eaton, on behalf of R. C. Gilbert, recently filed an action against the city for declaratory relief on another problem that arose under the ordinance. Date for trial of this suit has not been set.)

Mrs. de Wright then pointed out that there was no connection between the two cases. But Reynolds said that he would "see Petz later."

Petz then was called to the Council's table where in toto voice the councilmen and City Attorney Reynolds were in the position of figuring out ways and means of circumventing the ordinance.

"I only want to build a house," Petz said.

The Council then referred the matter to Reynolds so that Petz could go to the Planning Commission with a legal brief behind him that would allow the Council, the Planning Commission and the city attorney to circumvent the subdivision ordinance which nobody apparently wants as it is now written but which nobody will amend.

Next in the line which formed to the left was Eaton. He read the resolution passed this week by the Chamber of Commerce. It went all out for a change in the ordinance and suggested that the city conform to the State Subdivision Act.

(This act defines a subdivision as the splitting of a piece of property into five or more lots. The city ordinance says that cutting off a single lot constitutes a subdivision and maps must be filed. Under it cost to the subdivider runs as

Rehearsals for "Messiah" To Begin Monday Night

Those who remembered the impressive performance of "The Crucifixion" last Good Friday will look forward with anticipation to the scheduled performance of Handel's great oratorio, "The Messiah," to be given by the Sierra Madre Community Chorus and Orchestra on Friday evening, December 17, in the elementary school auditorium.

The chorus for "The Crucifixion" was made up of members of the Congregational and Episcopal choirs, but Directors Stewart Matter and Kenneth Bush wish to issue an open invitation to any musician, regardless of church affiliation, to report for the first rehearsal. Both singers and instrumentalists will be expected to meet definite musical levels because of the nature of the music, and the directors reserve the right to try out the musician if advisable. "Every person who wishes to join in this glorious story of the birth and ministry of The Master is urged to appear at the Congregational Church at 7:30 Monday night, Nov. 1.

The performance this year is being set for the school auditorium because of the greater seating capacity and larger stage. An electric organ is being furnished by Marcus Woodward and will be presided over by V. Gray Farrow, F.A.G.O. An orchestra of professional calibre is being assembled by Mr. Matter, thus making it possible to present "The Messiah" as Handel conceived it. A solo quartet from First Congregational Church, Los Angeles, is scheduled to appear for this occasion.

Director Matter states: "I sincerely hope that this will be an undertaking which will be supported by the musician and public alike. The reaction on the part of everyone who heard 'The Crucifixion' was so gratifying that we have decided to expand the undertaking this fall. Should this prove successful, we expect to make the community chorus a permanent organization and to perform during coming months such great choral works as Mendelssohn's 'Elijah,' Gounod's 'St. Cecilia Mass,' Faure's 'Requiem,' and many other great choral and orchestral scores.

"The community needs the chorus, and the chorus needs the backing of the public. Together, we can effect an organization which will be second to none, one which will bring to all a very real sense of satisfaction and pride."

Watch Out, Americans!

Christmas Mailing Orders From Local Post Office:

Christmas packages for overseas Military personnel should be mailed before November 15 to insure delivery. Parcels for Japan, Korea and the Islands of the Pacific should be mailed not later than November 1. All Christmas cards should be mailed prior to November 15. These same dates also apply to Civilian Parcels for overseas delivery.

Boxes for overseas transmission should be stronger than the containers used for parcels which do not leave our shores. It is absolutely necessary that all articles for overseas be packed in boxes of metal, wood, solid fiberboard, or strong double faced corrugated fiberboard, testing at least 200 pounds.

Each box should be securely tied with strong cord, preferably four separate pieces, two lengthwise and two crosswise, knotted at crossings.

Boxes should be tightly packed to prevent any rattling or loosening of the articles within the boxes.

It is also desirable that all fiberboard boxes be securely wrapped in heavy paper, if available, which materially strengthens the boxes. The boxes should be tied as above suggested, before and after applying the heavy paper wrapper. Sealed boxes should bear the printed inscription authorizing opening for postal inspection.

Postmasters will refuse to accept and dispatch parcels which are not so packed and wrapped as to withstand handling and transportation.

Valuable articles should be registered or insured.

Perishable matter will not be accepted.

Prohibited articles: Intoxicants, inflammable materials (including matches of all kinds and lighter fluids) poisons, compositions which may kill or injure or damage the mails.

Cigarettes and other tobacco products are prohibited transmission for delivery through A.P.O.'s in Germany, France, Austria, Trieste, and Italy also Navy numbers 913 and 963 in Germany.

Fire Threat

seen riding hell-for-leather away from the section where the fire was shortly detected.

"We have always been conscious of the recreational advantages of this area," Kuykendall said, "and have tried not to be too hard on persons who want to ride through. However, this is the second fire in 30 days. We will co-operate fully with the Forest Service in prosecution of all trespassers."

The destructive fire started Sunday afternoon but was not declared out until 5 p. m. Tuesday by U. S. Forest Service officer Leslie McCloud. Fire boss on Monday and Tuesday's mopping up, McCloud said the blaze had been a "hot" one and difficult to fight because no one could get close.

McCloud made the initial attack on it after the call came into him at the Santa Anita Ranger Station. W. M. Durham, district Ranger, acted as fire boss as 93 men, three tractors and ten tank trucks moved in to position. Houses in the Elkins subdivision suffered no property damage.

Council In More

high as $150 and requires two or three months time.)

A letter signed by all the real estate brokers in town and A. E. Morgan, vice-president of the Sierra Madre Bank, also asked that the city ordinance be changed to conform to the State act. Attached was a recommendation to the Planning Commission for study.

"I've been asleep since last January (when the disputed ordinance was passed), and only one broker—John Osgood—paid any attention to this thing," Harry Lange, across from the P. E. Station, said.

"We've had our heads in the sand," he added, speaking for his fellow real estate operators. Attorney Reynolds said, "The Courts will decide," but Mrs. de Wright declared:

"I fought the subdivision ordinance because it is too severe and allows the Planning Commission leeway on nothing. It should be amended so that the Commission can use a little common sense now and then."

She said, however, that she had no sympathy with the real estate men because they had ignored the threat presented by the subdivision ordinance and, with the exception of Osgood, didn't pick it up until now.

"A person should be able to read an Ordinance and determine what he can do without going to the Planning Commission to find out what it's going to do," Eaton said.

"There are plenty of violations, why haven't they been prosecuted?" he asked.

"This is not democracy. This is not good legislation. It violates property rights," he added.

"We can't change it tonight," Mayor Steinberger said.

"Refer to the Planning Commission for study," said Barter.

The comfortably full house (everybody had a seat) laughed, and the Council went on to something else.

A. L. Harris, the man who came to see about a street light several weeks ago and got caught in an Armory fight, came back for the street light problem. Not in yet. Refer to street superintendent. Have to see the Edison company, Steinberger pointed out.

The Council also:

1. Decided that a survey of four residents of Skyland drive in the Terrace indicated that no street lights are wanted.

2. Allowed the First Baptist Church on Sierra Madre Boulevard permission to put a promotional sign in the city park on Sundays but not during the week.

3. Referred to the recreation commission a request of the Nursery School Association that it be allowed to use the park house for an hour each morning for children's rest period.

4. Referred to the police and fire committee a request of Fire Chief J. C. Heasley that the fire alarm signal box be moved from its present location to another because of "too much confusion."

5. Said "No" to Chief Heasley on his request for permission to attend an Inter-Mountain Fire Chief's Convention next month. He's already been to one convention this year, Councilman Henry Nuetzel said.

6. Got bids on a "loader" for street department of $5008 for one and $7735 for another. Will buy the cheapest one that meets specifications.

7. Bought a new Chevrolet pickup truck for $1373.65 delivered, pending okay of specifications, and sold a retired pickup to Al Foxson for $275, all on bids. Also sold a burned out and up Caterpillar for $1395 to someone in Pasadena.

8. Decided to make $75 available to the Planning Commission for clerical help to help out on the muddle.

Attorney Eaton wound up the meeting by complimenting the councilmen for their patience and their "great big smiles."

POLICE BLOTTER

A car that was registered to a man from our town was found in the great movie city, but this man had sold it to another, and the police don't know yet, what a pity. . . Two little children, both very small, are reported without proper care. The Red Cross was called, they're right on the ball. . . Too many cats at a home without funds is enough to make (the) poor kittens ill. So a kind neighbor called for the cops to assist. The cats are now "over the hill." . . Juveniles "sparking" too late in the night cause trouble for one of the crowd. Her parents objected. They surely are right. Such hours should not be allowed. . . A very bad hazard pertaining to FIRE is found in a lady's back yard, so Heasley goes down there in fireman's attire and hands the lady a card.

A garage had been opened by force or contempt. The owner thought "Why should this be?" She called on the coppers, they're not exempt. 'Tis their job to go there and see. (So they went). . . A wheelbarrow load of rubbish was hauled to the opposite side of the St. Altho' the old man who did it was bald, was told that it wasn't discreet. . . An elderly woman who locks herself out, despite that she has lots of keys, cannot remember that cross bars are stout and will not open with ease. . . A drunk in an auto, an urgent report, brings Mackie and Chunn on the run. The man was found guilty when brought into Court, and brother, I'll tell ya 'tain't fun. . . While Officer Bird was 'round on patrol, he was called to one side by a girl. She pointed her finger right straight at a pole that had rotted and fell with a whirl. . . Anonymous calls that ring the phone bell is something that would get your goat, for each time you hear it, you just run like—well, there's some folks you'd like to see smote. (or should that be killed? Mebbe Smut.)

That's about enuff of that stuff. . . A very angry lady called the police to report that a dog had been run over on Lima street. She wanted to know why police don't patrol Lima instead of doing something else. 'Tis funny about these things. The banker doesn't do anything but sit there and take money. The barber next door doesn't do a thing but cut hair and get $1.00 a cut. The store-keeper selling trinkets has a cinch waiting for customers to come in. The druggist only has to fill a few prescriptions a day and he gets rich. In the eating house all that the owner needs to do is stand by the cash register and ring the bell.

Those who operate a print shop are immune from criticism. They really work. A jeweler only needs to repair a watch once in awhile. That's not too hard. He shouldn't get tired. Folks in a novelty shop appear to find time to stop and chat. That must be a cinch too. How often does a dress saleslady make a sale? Many of them have easy work. Selling insurance looks very easy. Selling groceries looks easy. Selling hardware looks easy. They all look easy. But how about the police? To some folks that's the real gravy train. That's what we all think about the other fellow's job. Let's be reasonable! . . . Motor Cycle racing. . . Drunk parked in car. . . Dog fight. . . Construction Company using city water without permission. Call the cops. . . Stray cat. . . Stolen bike, found wallet, children annoyance, petty theft, dog hit by a car, cat hit by a car, auto accident, swarm of bees, lost child, fire hazard, more fire hazards, grass fire, dumping, boys yelling for help, was found to be injured youths along the mountain road. . . "Family trouble!" . . . "Woman with too many drinks in a car." . . Should that have been, "woman in car with too many drinks," or "a car with a woman with too many drinks" or too many drinks in a car with a woman? You figure it out. . . "Fallen trash." (Most trash does that.) . . Auto accident. . . Boys using bad language. . . Another auto accident. . . Loud party. . . Another. (Must be Saturday night.) . . Petty theft solved. . . Auto accident. . . Too many. . . Water leak. . . Petty theft. . . Money taken from drawer. Solved. (Pretty good). . . Stray horse, chicken odor, stolen gas, sick dog, lost property and that's all.

District meeting divulged elected officers for next year. After three years of fine Chairmanship, William Kinney bowed out to permit Ed Davey to take over the responsibilities. Gordon McMillan expressed his thanks for the co-operation he received as Vice-chairman and turned the position over to Milton Goldberg. The Secretary job was vacated by Ed Osterman and taken up by Bert Embree. Other officers will be named by appointment.

Twenty-six boys and six adults made the trek to Orchard Camp Saturday to clean the area for camping. Equipment was loaned to them by the Forest Service. Fred LaLone, on duty with the Forest Patrol, happened by and complimented the fellows on a fine job making the area safer for camping.

The Explorers had election of officers last week and reported the following results: Post Guide, Wesley Shipway; Assistant Post Guide, George Mackanic; Scribe, Jim Carlson; Treasurer, George Carlson; and Sergeant at Arms, Doug Moffatt. Should see some action down that way now.

BEWARE!

During the last few days of a hectic political campaign it has been the un-American habit of many unscrupulous candidates for public office to indulge in last minute "SMEAR CAMPAIGNS."

Cries of "fascist" — "communist" — "leftist" — "tool of big business" are heard. Often not only the candidate, but his wife and children suffer loss of standing in the community due to vicious personal attacks based on lies and deceit. A survey based on the history of these un-American smears shows that the danger spots are EL SEGUNDO, PASADENA, and NORTH LONG BEACH.

Polio Research Grants Reported

The University of California Medical Center received a total of $49,426 in research grants from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for the seven-month period ending December 21, 1947, according to a report by the Foundation.

Two grants were received by investigators at the Medical Center during this period. One, a grant of $43,000, went to support work under the direction of Dr. Karl F. Meyer, director of the Hooper Foundation for Medical Research.

In this study Dr. Meyer and his colleagues are attempting to determine how polio virus and similar disease infections spread. They are also working to develop dependable and rapid tests for identification of the virus and diagnosis of the infection. Grants have been made for this program since 1938.

Beginning Thursday, Nov. 4, a brand new series of early American dances will be taught in the exhibition hall of the Pasadena Civic Auditorium on the first, third and fifth Thursdays of each month. Alternating with square dances, set for these nights, will be old-fashioned dancing, to be offered on second and fourth Thursdays.

Proceeds from the new program will go to the support of the Arrowhead Music Camp, which offers training courses to musicians from the 12 western states and Hawaii.

L. Instruction will be offered from 7:30 to 8:30 each evening, dancing squares and early American rounds from 8:30 to 11:30.

At the old-fashioned dances, every third number will be a waltz. Other dances that are a part of American entertainment heritage will be offered, with instruction at 7:30 on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month.

Letter to Editor Arrives Via Typhoon— Pictures Great Courage of Okinawa Natives

Okinawa Shima, Ryukyus.

Sierra Madre News.
Dear Mrs. Ward:

Thanks so much for the old copy of the NEWS with all the Arts Guild reproductions. My friends at the Shuri colony will be thrilled.

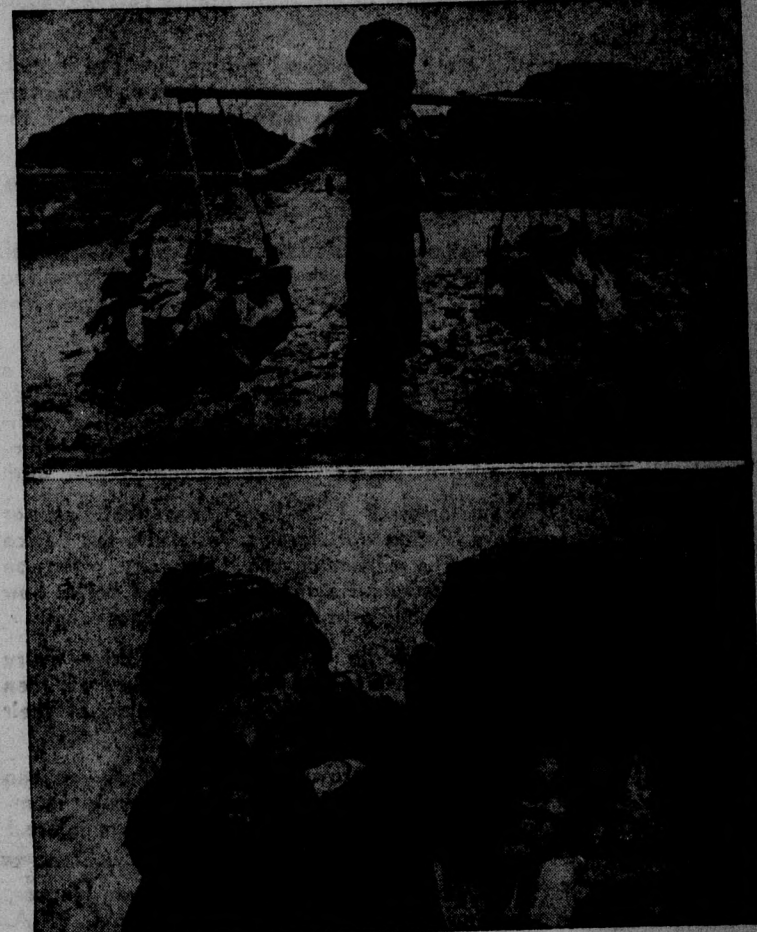

That is, when they finish digging out of the typhoon wreckage of last week.

You may tell Ed Voorhees, Alfred Dewey, et al, that there will be more delay in the receipt of a painting by the Arts Guild from Okinawa. The gallery, housed in two quonsets was a total loss and about ten of the artists' homes were destroyed.

Natoyama's new tile-roofed studio weathered the blow, but it is now housing the homeless of the colony. There will be little brush wielding for awhile, methinks.

One injured student was the only casualty in the colony area, but there were about ten lives lost in that one village.

The cheerful courage displayed by these people is wonderful to see. After losing their pitiful belongings they can still smile and sing. A spokesman for the Okinawa Artists Society summed it up with—"A mere typhoon cannot extinguish the flame..."

These typhoons are given alphabetical designations in the form of feminine names. The weather observers and meteorologists insist the custom started because of the completely unpredictable behavior of these cyclonic disturbances!

This time it was "L", so "Libby" was the culprit who tried to take our island apart. Her peak velocity was only about 120 mph, but the lateral movement of the whole spinning mass was comparatively slow.

The typhoon was about 150 miles in diameter with an "eye," the calm central portion, about 30 miles across. The passage of this tempestuous gal over and through our area consumed three days, causing considerable property damage but there were no casualties reported among occupation personnel, military or civilian.

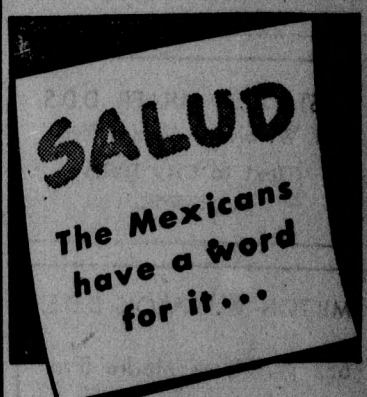

Six of us rode out the storm in our quonset in preference to the shelter and it was quite an experience. It had all the atmosphere of a Hollywood tropical thriller except that neither coconuts nor Dorothy Lamour blew into our corrugated cottage.

Thanks again and sincerely,

Bill Jenkins.

CASE OF THE DELINQUENT PARENT

This is the week for parents to take stock of themselves. At least it is time for parents—mothers AND fathers—to ask themselves if they know anything at all about the school that feeds their children's minds a good part of each day.

Chances are a lot of parents will have to admit that they know little or nothing about the school's operation and that they know nothing more about their children's teachers than their names.

Probably the most painless antidote for this deficiency is membership and active participation in the Sierra Madre Parent-Teacher Association.

By taking a place in the P.T.A., parents can have a hand in making a better school. They will learn the shortcomings of elementary education and be in a position to do something about it—for the benefit of their own children.

Parents will be able to develop better relations with the teachers, again for the sake of their children.

The P.T.A. is non-sectarian, non-partisan and non-commercial. Its dues are low (only 50 cents a year). It isn't interested in making money or building up a fat treasury. The main goal is parent education.

The Sierra Madre P.T.A. is an active organization. It is in a position to act. And it does act. It has worked out a commendable lunch program for poor children. It bought for the school an auditorium public address system. This year it helped to buy an Audiometer to test the hearing of school children—including your own.

The need for the Audiometer? Tests have shown that five per cent of all children have hearing deficiencies. Tests with this device will reveal the trouble. The difficulty can then very often be checked by medical attention. And a teacher will know better how to overcome the individual child's problem in the school room.

The P.T.A. is now in the middle of a membership drive. Every mother and father with a child in school should join. They will then have a hand in safeguarding the health and well-being of their children.

Even if your children have outgrown the local school, you can still have a hand in an active child welfare program through membership in the organization. It is open to anyone with an interest in child welfare.

If you have not already been contacted, call Mrs. Clyde Hoover, membership committee chairman, or Mrs. Nathan Jacobs, P.T.A. president.

Don't become a delinquent parent.

Scholarly Sleuth Returns
Lost Page of 1804 Letter

In the Huntington Library in San Marino, among the vast collection of original letters by great authors, is part of a letter by Samuel Coleridge. At the end of the second page a sentence ends in mid-air; the next page is missing—or it was missing until this week.

Six thousand miles away, in a London bookshop, the last sentences of that letter have been tucked away, senseless in themselves without the first pages of Coleridge's letter to which they belonged until this summer the sharp eyes of an alert American scholar spotted them and brought them to America to complete the thoughts that Coleridge set down in his letter of 1804.

Dr. Earl L. Griggs, distinguished Coleridge scholar, professor of English at the University of California at Los Angeles, and longtime researcher among the Coleridge manuscripts at the Huntington Library, has just returned from a summer in England, bringing with him as a gift to the Library the missing part of the Coleridge letter.

Survey Shows Cost Rise
Of Newspaper Production

How long newspapers can ward off price increases occasioned by rapidly sky rocketing production costs is one of the most serious questions that faces the publishing industry today, according to a survey made by the American Newspaper Publishers Association.

Everything that goes into the making of a newspaper is peak-high in price and still going up. For instance, the paper on which this newspaper is printed could be bought for $50 a ton in 1940. Today this same newsprint costs more than double the 1940 price.

Wages and salaries are at a level more than double the 1940 figure, and replacements for worn out equipment are priced at 70 per cent and more above the prewar figures.

On the other hand, newspapers have been absorbing mounting costs until at last the point has been reached where there is no more room for absorption.

When it is considered that popular weekly magazines such as the Saturday Evening Post, which sold for 5 cents before the war, is now selling for 15 cents a copy, and Life, formerly 10 cents is now 20 cents, it becomes apparent that the slight increases already made by some newspapers and contemplated by others, represent but a small fraction of spiralling production figures.

Democritus, the great physicist of ancient Greece, was the first man to discover the atom and report that it was the basis of all matter.

One mistake, while driving too fast, might be your last one, is a warning from the California Highway Patrol.

Best Sellers At Library

BY ISABEL STRADLEY

It is inevitable that "Tomorrow Will Be Better," by Betty Smith, will be compared to her first novel, "A Tree Grows In Brooklyn." It is true that the two books have many elements in common. They are both drawn from the same level of society; they both deal with family life in Brooklyn. But it is never fair to judge a work of fiction by any author in terms of another he was written. "Tomorrow Will Be Better" has the warm, tender compassion for the little people. It brings to life a group of aching, enduring human beings, exposes their lives of poverty and disappointments, their wistful dreams of tomorrow. The author writes with a direct, tidy kind of prose suitable in a special way to the simple drama that occurs in ordinary lives. It can be said of Betty Smith that she sticks carefully to what she, herself, knows, to material with which she is thoroughly familiar.

"The Big Fisherman," Lloyd C. Douglas' latest novel, has been eagerly awaited by the millions of readers who found his latest book, "The Robe," such a rewarding one. "The Big Fisherman" is the story of Simon Peter, that most human of Apostles. You meet him first at the Sea of Galilee, a powerful, two-fisted, most profane fishing boss. But in the end he lays down his nets to follow Jesus of Nazareth to Calvary. The book attempts to account for the centuries-old feud between the Arabians and the Jews, and it shows a world quarreling and warring then as now. It is said that Mr. Douglas has been five years in the research and writing of this his eleventh novel.

The progenitor of the Lee Swiss Straw hat was introduced in England in 1779 by Admiral Nelson, who made it the summer uniform hat for his crew.

Altadena To Get 9-Acre Civic Center

Official instructions to begin development of a 9-acre civic center in Altadena were issued last week by the Los Angeles Regional Planning Commission.

Some four acres of the land, at El Molino, Foothill and Mariposa streets, are already being utilized in construction of offices for the Los Angeles County Sheriff's sub station, Justice of the Peace court, and facilities for the Dept. of Building and Safety.

A park in the area has been in the county master plan for several years.

C. of C. Gets $4000 That Is— In San Gabriel

San Gabriel eyebrows raised a jot this week when the City Council approved a contract between the city and the Chamber of Commerce, providing for a $4000 annual subsidy.

Previously the city has provided the Chamber with a flat $200 a month on a no-contract basis.

The new agreement outlines in detail the duties of the Chamber, the officials, and general operation of the office, making accounting of operations necessary to fulfillment of the contract.

$16,000 Recreation In San Marino From Council and School

Approximately $16,000 will be expended through the year on San Marino's recreation program. City Council members stated at last week's meeting. Of this amount, the city budget, $11,000, receives $2500 from its Community Council and a like amount from the school district because the program is an extension of school activities.

There are 4,172 registered voters in Sierra Madre.

Cycle Change Completed In 360 Cities

Ceremonies marking the completion of Southern California Edison Company's three-year frequency change program were conducted Tuesday morning at the company's La Brea sub-station in Redondo Beach when a switch was thrown to change the last seven feeder lines from 50 to 60-cycle operation. Harry J. Bauer, chairman of the Edison Company board of directors, threw the switch completing the $37,500,000 project.

L. E. Jenkins, district manager for the company here, announced that 1179 former 50-cycle feeder lines had been changed to 60-cycle current since the beginning of the program. Electrical service in this area was changed to 60-cycle operation in the early spring of this year.

DOROTHY LAMOUR, Dinah Shore, Veronica Lake, Mrs. Kay Kyser (Georgia Carroll), Marjorie Reynolds, Barbara Britton, and Sue Carroll (Mrs. Alan Ladd) all have babies and have permitted their photographs to be used in ads in Parents' Magazine, Good Housekeeping, Sunset and many other magazines featuring the famous BABY LINE furniture. That's one reason the Balling Baby Shop is proud to sell BABY LINE high chairs. Another reason is that these high chairs are designed just right, and they have cute designs on the backs. One model is 10.95, and another at 14.95 is adjustable in such a way that you can fold the legs down making a low chair on wheels with an attached table also on wheels!

BABY LINE CRIBS are equally cleverly designed and constructed. We have two of the most popular models here at the Balling Baby Shop, for $5.95 and $9.95. You should see them.

LAST FRIDAY NIGHT we had some SPECIALS that WERE specials and the customers snapped them up. WHAM! just like that. THIS Friday night we will have a couple more, equally hot bargains... and if you're interested, come early. Here they are: regular $5.95 toy trucks will be $3. Friday night only. The other special is a reduction of 20% on all girls' blouses regularly 1.95 to 5.95.

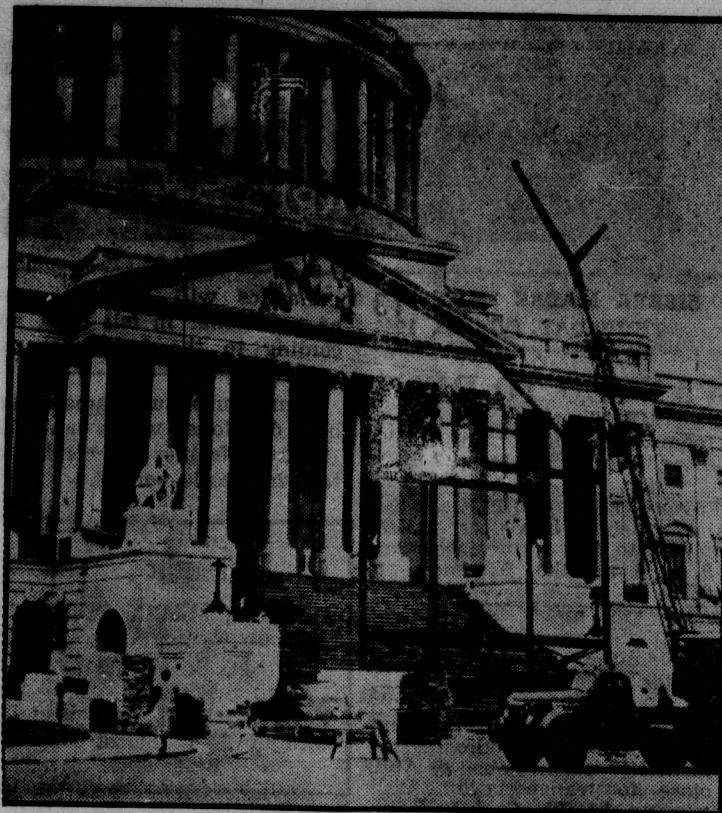

WONDERFUL TOYS FOR CHRISTMAS have been opened up and many customers are having us lay them away with a deposit. Not a bad idea! Here are some suggestions: exact replicas of the new Fords 1.95... sewing machines 6.95... "Makit Toys" 1.75 and 2.95... Alice in Wonderland plastic dishes 1.79... red dump trucks 2.25... big oil trucks 6.95... moving vans 9.50... Thayer deluxe musical rockers 10.95 and 12.95... and the famous tennis weensie Story Book dolls, in beautiful clothes for all the days of the week, months and special days, 1.15 to 2.95.

NEW ARRIVALS this week were cute, colorful "ski style" wool mittens, 69c to 1.75... and boys' "ski-ish looking" sweaters from Cantner, 3.95, 4.95 and 5.95. They're making a terrific hit with the kids.

BIG HELP TO MOTHERS is "Evenflo" brushless bottle cleanser. It's a powder. You simply dissolve a tablespoonful in a gallon of hot water, soak bottles and nipples five to ten minutes, rinse and sterilize. All milk residue disappears like magic, leaving bottles clean and sweet. 59c for a pound carton.

BALLING BABY SHOP. Monrovia is a delightful place to look around in from now until Christmas!

FIRE FLAMES

It has come to the reporter that Ed Decker has a way of his own when it comes to putting out fires. It has been told that he can "blow them out." On a recent fire call, a small blaze was creeping into a large one. Ed, being without water or other extinguishers, did not wait for the fire to spread. He just took one long breath and puckered up his mouth to the shape of a closed morning glory and let go a powerful puff and the fire was out. No further equipment was needed for that fire and the boys are now hoping that Decker can always get there first.

A bit of tidings that has reached the reporter is that "Dotty" Hawks, (who keeps an eye on those entering her pappy's plant), not only sees that folks without business do not get in, but she is alert and watches out for the cops with the chalk stick and when the fire horn blows is quick to notify the many fire fighters who are employed there. A microphone close to her desk is of much value to the Fire fighters club. It was nice to see Fred Lewis back among the voters at last meeting night. He was forced to leave the Taxi business in order to attend and it is only hoped that not too many people missed a ride on this account. "Fran" Eakmann was also in attendance, the first time for some weeks. He is considered a regular and is expected to show up often.

The fire department has lost two very good men. Joe Swanson and Ray Penn have left the City to take up business in Lancaster. Both fellows have been faithful fire fighters for many years. Joe has more than 20 years' service in the local volunteer fire department and acted as secretary for a long time. He meant much to the success of the department. Ray was one of the spark plugs of the organization. Much depended on him to keep the equipment in running order. He was ever willing and ready to "look 'em over" when brot to him, even tho he may be very busy. His heart was in the fire department. We will miss these fellows a lot. We wish them much success.

Kin of Resident Passes Away, Services Friday

Sidney A. Allen, younger brother of the late Harold E. Allen of Sierra Madre and uncle of David H. Allen, also of this city, died October 26 at Good Samaritan Hospital, Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 11:00 a. m. at the Church of Our Saviour, San Gabriel.

Mr. Allen was born in England but came to Altadena as a boy. Recent years he resided in San Gabriel. He is survived by his widow, two sisters, Mrs. Annie H. Allen of Pasadena; Mrs. William Bowler of Charter Oak; and brothers Edgar A. Allen of Pasadena, Walter I. Allen of Altadena and Percy M. Allen of Laguna.

ALCOHOLIC INTAKE

Sacramento, October 28—Revenues from excise taxes on the August distributions of all types of alcoholic beverages were 5.8 percent higher than in the corresponding month of 1947 and amounted to $1,304,810.78, according to figures released today by William G. Bonelli, Chairman of the State Board of Equalization.

The hairspring in a lady's wristwatch is less than one-third the diameter of an average human hair and vibrates 18,000 times an hour.

Even tho there should be some rain before this goes to press, there cannot be sufficient to entirely eliminate the great fire hazard we now face. The dryness is too deep to be unrooted by a little rain. We must continue to be careful by keeping the premises clear of trash and burnable materials. Another good year and then another good year will only help us to have another good year to follow. Let's have something to brag about by keeping our fire losses low. There's no harm in bragging about such an accomplishment. It's something to be proud of. In order to hold onto our reputation, it will be necessary to keep an eye on the kiddies and do our damndest to stop every fire that gets started before it can get over our heads.

Million Dollar Flower Industry in California

California's cut-flower production brought growers more than 25 million dollars in 1947. Commercial flowers are grown both in greenhouses and in fields, and are sold here as well as exported to other parts of the country.

The 1947 crop of greenhouse flowers in the two leading counties, Alameda and San Mateo, included $2,989,065 worth of roses, and the combined value of gardenias, carnations, and orchids was approximately equally high. It is estimated that about half of the greenhouse roses raised around San Francisco Bay are shipped to Los Angeles.

Los Angeles County raises most of its commercial flowers in fields. Its 1947 crop is estimated at 13 million dollars. Asters, chrysanthemums and stocks average more than 100 acres each.

Flowers shipped from California usually go by refrigerator express but air shipments are on the increase. Carloads shipped from Los Angeles, Oakland, and San Francisco in 1939 totaled 1478. Present shipments have not quite caught up with prewar figures and yet in 1945 San Francisco and the peninsula sent out 1068 carloads. Prominent among the cut flowers exported from California are orchids. In 1940 total shipments of orchids amounted to $87,980. About three fourths of the flowers went by rail, the rest by air.

"AH, ANOTHER HAPPY FAMILY!"

Yes, whenever a new telephone arrives in a home everyone is happy — and so are we. One of the most enjoyable occupations in the telephone business today is the installing of telephones and the happiness created in a family by this service is matched by ours.

Telephones are going in at a steady pace — during the past twelve months we have installed some 12,000 with a net gain of 6,000, and have invested more than $1,750,000 in new construction.

But here is an amazing situation: As fast as telephones are installed, new applications for service come in. As Alice said, after she stepped through the looking glass, we have to run as fast as we can to stay where we are. There seems to be no let-up in the growth of Southern California and this fact is vividly demonstrated by the ever-increasing volume of telephone service applications.
